All Israel Shall Be Saved in Christianity

The Bible is clear that all Israel shall be saved. This is a promise that God made to the nation of Israel, and it is a promise that He will keep. In Romans 11:26, Paul writes, “And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.” This verse is a clear indication that God will save all of Israel, and that He will do so through the coming of the Deliverer.

The Bible also speaks of the salvation of Israel in other places. In Isaiah 45:17, God says, “But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.” This verse is a clear indication that God will save all of Israel, and that He will do so with an everlasting salvation.

In addition to these verses, there are other passages in the Bible that speak of the salvation of Israel. In Jeremiah 31:31-34, God says, “Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord: But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." This passage is a clear indication that God will save all of Israel, and that He will do so through a new covenant.

The Bible also speaks of the salvation of Israel in other ways. In Isaiah 59:20-21, God says, "And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord. As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever." This passage is a clear indication that God will save all of Israel, and that He will do so through the coming of the Redeemer.

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will.
