The Indian Christian Revival of the 2000s to the present has been a time of great spiritual growth and renewal for the Indian Christian community. It has been a time of increased evangelism, church planting, and spiritual awakening. This revival has been marked by a renewed focus on the Bible, prayer, and worship.

The Indian Christian Revival began in the early 2000s with a renewed emphasis on the Bible. The Bible was seen as the source of truth and the foundation of faith. This renewed focus on the Bible led to a greater understanding of the Christian faith and a deeper commitment to living out its teachings.

At the same time, prayer and worship became more important in the lives of Indian Christians. Prayer was seen as a way to connect with God and to seek His guidance and direction. Worship was seen as a way to express love and gratitude to God.

The Indian Christian Revival also saw an increase in evangelism and church planting. Evangelism was seen as a way to share the gospel with those who had not yet heard it. Church planting was seen as a way to establish new churches and to reach out to those who had not yet heard the gospel.

The Indian Christian Revival also saw a renewed focus on social justice. Indian Christians began to take a stand against poverty, injustice, and oppression. They began to advocate for the rights of the poor and marginalized. They also began to speak out against corruption and abuse of power.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
