Introduction

The Nepalese Revival of the 2000s was a period of spiritual renewal and growth in the Nepalese Christian community. It was marked by a renewed commitment to evangelism, discipleship, and church planting. The revival was characterized by a deep sense of spiritual hunger and a desire to reach out to the lost.

Background

The Nepalese Revival began in the early 2000s, when a group of Nepalese Christians began to pray for a spiritual awakening in their country. The revival was sparked by a series of evangelistic campaigns, led by local pastors and missionaries, that resulted in thousands of conversions. The revival was also fueled by the growth of the Nepalese Christian community, which had grown from a few hundred in the early 1990s to over a million by the end of the decade.

The revival was marked by a renewed commitment to evangelism, discipleship, and church planting. The revival was characterized by a deep sense of spiritual hunger and a desire to reach out to the lost. The revival also saw a renewed emphasis on prayer, Bible study, and worship.

Impact

The Nepalese Revival had a profound impact on the Nepalese Christian community. It resulted in a dramatic increase in church attendance, as well as a renewed commitment to evangelism and discipleship. The revival also saw a renewed emphasis on prayer, Bible study, and worship.

The revival also had a significant impact on the wider Nepalese society. It resulted in a greater openness to the gospel, as well as a greater respect for religious freedom. The revival also saw a renewed emphasis on social justice, as Christians sought to address the needs of the poor and marginalized.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
