II. Biblical Basis of West African Prayer and Healing Revival

The West African Prayer and Healing Revival has its roots in the Bible. The Bible is full of stories of healing and hope, and the revival has been seen as a way to bring these stories to life in the African context.

The Bible speaks of God's power to heal and restore. In the book of Isaiah, God says, "I am the Lord who heals you" (Isaiah 53:5). In the book of James, it says, "Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord" (James 5:14).

The Bible also speaks of the power of prayer. In the book of Matthew, Jesus says, "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). In the book of Philippians, it says, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God" (Philippians 4:6).

The Bible also speaks of the power of faith. In the book of Mark, Jesus says, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you" (Mark 11:23).
