The world of social media has opened up a whole new way to connect with missionaries in Christianity. With Facebook, you can easily find and connect with missionaries from all over the world. Whether you're looking for a local missionary or one from a different country, Facebook can help you find the right person for your needs.

What is a Missionary?

A missionary is someone who is sent out by a church or organization to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ. Missionaries are typically sent to foreign countries to share the good news of salvation and to help people in need. Missionaries often work in difficult and dangerous conditions, and they rely on the support of their church and other Christians to help them in their mission.
