Corruption is a major issue in the world today, and it is no different in the Christian faith. The Bible has a lot to say about corruption, and it is important to understand what it has to say in order to combat it. In this blog post, we will look at some of the Biblical references to corruption and how they can help us to better understand and combat it.

I. What Does the Bible Say About Corruption?

The Bible has a lot to say about corruption, and it is important to understand what it has to say in order to combat it. Here are some of the key passages that address corruption:

1. Proverbs 29:4: "By justice a king gives stability to the land, but one who makes heavy exactions ruins it."
2. Proverbs 28:8: "Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor."
3. Isaiah 1:23: "Your rulers are rebels, companions of thieves; they all love bribes and chase after gifts. They do not defend the cause of the fatherless; the widow's case does not come before them."
4. James 5:4: "Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, are crying out against you, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts."

5. 1 Timothy 6:10: For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs.

II. How Can We Combat Corruption?

The Bible has a lot to say about corruption, and it is important to understand what it has to say in order to combat it. Here are some of the key ways that we can combat corruption:

1. Pray: Praying for those in positions of power and authority is one of the most effective ways to combat corruption. Pray for those in positions of power to have wisdom and discernment to make decisions that are just and fair.
2. Speak Out: Speak out against corruption when you see it. Speak out against injustice and unfairness.
3. Support Organizations: Support organizations that are working to combat corruption.
4. Rededicate Yourself: Rededicate yourself to living a life of integrity and honesty.

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen. Amen
