Biblical References To The Name The Good Shepherd

The Good Shepherd is a term used in the New Testament of the Bible to refer to Jesus Christ. It is a metaphor used to describe Jesus's role as a protector and provider for his followers. The term is used in several passages in the Bible, including John 10:11-18, where Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

The Good Shepherd is a powerful image that has been used throughout the centuries to illustrate Jesus's love and care for his followers. It is a reminder of the importance of following Jesus's example of self-sacrifice and service.

The Good Shepherd is also a symbol of hope and comfort for those who are struggling. In John 10:27-30, Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand." This passage is a reminder that Jesus is always with us, even in our darkest moments.

The Good Shepherd is also a symbol of strength and courage. In John 10:14-16,

Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep." This passage is a reminder that Jesus is willing to sacrifice himself for the sake of his followers.

The Good Shepherd is also a symbol of justice and mercy. In John 10:17-18, Jesus says, "For this reason the Father loves me because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have the authority to lay it down, and I have the authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father." This passage is a reminder that Jesus is willing to stand up for what is right and to show mercy to those who are in need.
