I. What is God's Judgement?

God's judgement is the act of God judging the actions of humans and determining the consequences of those actions. It is a concept that is found throughout the Bible and is a major theme in Christianity. God's judgement is seen as a way for God to bring justice and righteousness to the world.

II. Different Denominations and Their Interpretations of God's Judgement

A. Roman Catholic

The Roman Catholic Church believes that God's judgement is both just and merciful. They believe that God will judge each person according to their actions and that those who have done good will be rewarded and those who have done evil will be punished. They also believe that God's judgement is not only about punishment, but also about redemption and forgiveness.

B. Eastern Orthodox

The Eastern Orthodox Church believes that God's judgement is both just and merciful. They believe that God will judge each person according to their actions and that those who have done good will be rewarded and those who have done evil will be punished. They also believe that God's judgement is not only about punishment, but also about redemption and forgiveness.

C. Protestant

The Protestant Church believes that God's judgement is both just and merciful. They believe that God will judge each person according to their actions and that those who have done good will be rewarded and those who have done evil will be punished. They also believe that God's judgement is not only about punishment, but also about redemption and forgiveness.

III. Bible Verses on God's Judgement
