Education in the Church

The church has always been a place of learning and education. In the early church, the apostles taught the people about Jesus and the gospel. Today, churches offer Sunday school classes, Bible studies, and other educational opportunities for people to learn more about God and the Bible.

Education in the Home

The Bible also speaks of education in the home. In Deuteronomy 6:7, it says, "You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up." This verse shows us that parents should be teaching their children about God and the Bible.

Education in the World

The Bible also speaks of education in the world. In Matthew 28:19-20, it says, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." This verse shows us that we should be teaching others about God and the gospel.
