El Elyon is a Hebrew name for God that is used throughout the Bible. It is translated as “Most High” or “God Most High” and is used to refer to God’s sovereignty and power. El Elyon is mentioned in the Old Testament more than 50 times and is used to describe God’s greatness and His relationship with His people.

Genesis 14:18-20

In Genesis 14:18-20, El Elyon is used to describe God’s power and sovereignty over all things. In this passage, Melchizedek, the king of Salem, blesses Abram and praises El Elyon for delivering Abram from his enemies. He says, “Blessed be Abram by El Elyon, Creator of heaven and earth. And blessed be El Elyon, who has delivered your enemies into your hand.” This passage shows that El Elyon is powerful enough to deliver His people from their enemies and is sovereign over all things.

Psalm 78:35

In Psalm 78:35, El Elyon is used to describe God’s faithfulness and mercy. In this passage, the psalmist praises God for His faithfulness and mercy, saying, “They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God their redeemer.” This passage shows that El Elyon is faithful to His people and is merciful to them.

Deuteronomy 32:8-9

In Deuteronomy 32:8-9, El Elyon is used to describe God’s justice and righteousness. In this passage, Moses praises God for His justice and righteousness, saying, “When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when he divided all mankind, he set up boundaries for the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel.” This passage shows that El Elyon is just and righteous in His dealings with His people.

Isaiah 14:14

In Isaiah 14:14, El Elyon is used to describe God’s power and authority. In this passage, the prophet Isaiah speaks of God’s power and authority, saying, “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.” This passage shows that El Elyon is powerful and has authority over all things.

Daniel 4:17

In Daniel 4:17, El Elyon is used to describe God’s wisdom and knowledge. In this passage, King Nebuchadnezzar praises God for His wisdom and knowledge, saying, “The decision is announced by messengers, the holy ones declare the verdict, so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he wishes and sets over them the lowliest of men.” This passage shows that El Elyon is wise and all-knowing and has the power to give and take away kingdoms.
