Jehovah Raah is a name used in the Bible to refer to God as the Shepherd of His people. The name is derived from the Hebrew words for “the Lord” (Jehovah) and “shepherd” (Raah). It is used throughout the Bible to refer to God’s care and protection of His people.

I. What Does Jehovah Raah Mean?

Jehovah Raah is a combination of two Hebrew words: Jehovah and Raah. Jehovah is the name of God in the Old Testament and is derived from the Hebrew verb “to be”. Raah is the Hebrew word for “shepherd” and is used to refer to God’s care and protection of His people. Together, the two words form the name Jehovah Raah, which means “the Lord is my Shepherd”.

II. Examples of Jehovah Raah in the Bible

The name Jehovah Raah is used throughout the Bible to refer to God’s care and protection of His people. One of the most well-known examples of this is found in Psalm 23:

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.” (Psalm 23:1-3)

The name Jehovah Raah is also used in Isaiah 40:11, which says:

“He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.”

In addition, the name Jehovah Raah is used in Jeremiah 31:10, which says:

“Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.”
