Jehovah Shammah is a name used in the Bible to refer to God. It is a Hebrew phrase that means "The Lord is There" and is used to describe God's presence in our lives. The phrase is found in the book of Ezekiel, where it is used to describe the glory of God's presence in the temple.

The phrase is also used in other parts of the Bible to describe God's presence in our lives. In Isaiah, it is used to describe God's presence in the midst of his people. In Revelation, it is used to describe God's presence in the New Jerusalem.

In Christianity, Jehovah Shammah is used to describe God's presence in our lives. It is a reminder that God is always with us, no matter what we are going through. It is a reminder that God is always there to help us and to provide us with strength and comfort.

The phrase is also used in Christian worship. It is often used in prayers and hymns to remind us of God's presence in our lives. It is also used in sermons and Bible studies to remind us of God's presence in our lives.

Jehovah Shammah is also used in Christian devotional literature. It is often used to remind us of God's presence in our lives and to encourage us to seek God's presence in our lives. It is also used to remind us of God's faithfulness and to encourage us to trust in God's promises.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
