The name Messiah is a title that is used throughout the Bible to refer to Jesus Christ. It is a Hebrew word that means “anointed one” and is used to refer to the one who will bring salvation to the world. In Christianity, the Messiah is seen as the savior of mankind and the one who will bring about the Kingdom of God.

The Old Testament

The name Messiah is used throughout the Old Testament to refer to the coming of the promised savior. In Isaiah 9:6, it is written: “For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” This passage is seen as a prophecy of the coming of the Messiah and is often quoted in Christian circles.

In the book of Daniel, the name Messiah is used to refer to the coming of the one who will bring about the end of days. In Daniel 9:25-26, it is written: “Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.” This passage is seen as a prophecy of the coming of the Messiah and is often quoted in Christian circles.

The New Testament

The name Messiah is also used in the New Testament to refer to Jesus Christ. In Matthew 1:21, it is written: “And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.” This passage is seen as a prophecy of the coming of the Messiah and is often quoted in Christian circles.

In John 4:25-26, it is written: “The woman said unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.” This passage is seen as a confirmation of Jesus as the Messiah and is often quoted in Christian circles.

The name Messiah is also used in the book of Revelation to refer to Jesus Christ. In Revelation 19:16, it is written: “And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.” This passage is seen as a confirmation of Jesus as the Messiah and is often quoted in Christian circles.
