The Bible tells us that the Fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. When a person is full of fear for God, it is a sign that they have great wisdom, and that they understand the power and greatness of God. In Proverbs 9:10, it says, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.”•

What Does it Mean to Fear God?

When we talk about the Fear of God, it does not mean that we should be scared of God. Instead, it means that we should have an awe and reverence for Him that compels us to obey. It is a deep respect and admiration of who God is and what He has done. It is also a recognition of His sovereignty and power.

The Benefits of Fearing God

When we fear God, it brings us closer to Him and gives us a better understanding of His plans and purposes. Fearing God also brings us peace and guidance in our lives, as we trust in His will and seek to obey Him. Additionally, when we fear God, we can live more confidently and joyfully, knowing that He is always with us and that He is in control.

The Dangers of Not Fearing God

When we do not fear God, we can easily become prideful, disobedient, and rebellious. We may begin to think that we can do whatever we want, without consequences. We can also become more susceptible to temptation, as we are no longer relying on God's strength and guidance.

How to Begin Fear of God

The Bible tells us that we must first humble ourselves and acknowledge our need for God. We must recognize that He is all-knowing, all-powerful, and ever-present. We should also pray for God to fill us with His Spirit and help us to live according to His will. Additionally, we should read the Bible and meditate on its teachings to gain a better understanding of who God is and how we should live.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
