Adonai is a Hebrew word that is used to refer to God in the Old Testament of the Bible. It is a title of reverence and respect, and is often translated as "Lord" or "Master". In the New Testament, Jesus is referred to as Adonai, fulfilling the Old Testament prophecies of the coming Messiah.

The Old Testament is filled with references to Adonai, and it is clear that the people of Israel were expecting a Messiah who would fulfill the promises of God. In Isaiah 9:6, it is written, "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." This prophecy is fulfilled in Jesus Christ, who is referred to as Adonai in the New Testament.

In the New Testament, Jesus is referred to as Adonai in several places. In Matthew 28:18-20, Jesus says, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Here, Jesus is claiming authority over all creation, and is referring to himself as Adonai.

In John 14:6, Jesus says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." Here, Jesus is claiming to be the only way to God, and is referring to himself as Adonai.

In Revelation 1:8, Jesus says, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end," which is a reference to Adonai. Here, Jesus is claiming to be the beginning and the end, and is referring to himself as Adonai.

The fulfillment of the name Adonai in Jesus Christ is a powerful reminder of the promises of God. Jesus is the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies, and is the only way to God. He is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and is the Lord of all creation.
