Elohim is a Hebrew word that is used in the Bible to refer to God. It is a plural form of the word El, which means "God". Elohim is often translated as "God" in English, but it can also be translated as "gods" or "divine beings". In Christianity, Elohim is seen as a reference to the Trinity, which is composed of God the Father, God the Son (Jesus Christ), and God the Holy Spirit.

The name Elohim is used throughout the Bible to refer to God. In the Old Testament, Elohim is used to refer to the one true God who created the universe and all that is in it. In the New Testament, Elohim is used to refer to Jesus Christ, who is seen as the fulfillment of the Old Testament promises of a Messiah.

The name Elohim is used in the Bible to refer to God in a variety of ways. In the Old Testament, Elohim is used to refer to the one true God who created the universe and all that is in it. In the New Testament, Elohim is used to refer to Jesus Christ, who is seen as the fulfillment of the Old Testament promises of a Messiah.

In the Old Testament, Elohim is used to refer to God as the Creator and Sustainer of the universe. In Genesis 1:1, Elohim is used to refer to God as the Creator of the universe: "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." In Psalm 90:2, Elohim is used to refer to God as the Sustainer of the universe: "Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God."

In the New Testament, Elohim is used to refer to Jesus Christ as the fulfillment of the Old Testament promises of a Messiah. In John 1:1-3, Elohim is used to refer to Jesus Christ as the Word of God: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.â?• In Colossians 1:15-17, Elohim is used to refer to Jesus Christ as the image of the invisible God: â??He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authoritiesâ??all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.â?•

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
