

“Do unto others as you would have them do unto you” (Matthew 7:12). This is another important proverb on character from the Bible. Jesus taught that we should treat others the way we would want to be treated. This means that we should be kind and generous to others, just as we would want them to be kind and generous to us.

3. Do not judge others

“Do not judge, or you too will be judged” (Matthew 7:1). Jesus taught that we should not judge others. This means that we should not make assumptions about someone based on their appearance or behavior. Instead, we should try to understand them and show them compassion.

4. Do not be anxious

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God” (Philippians 4:6). Jesus taught that we should not be anxious about anything. This means that we should trust in God and have faith that He will provide for us.

5. Do not be afraid

“Do not be afraid, for I am with you” (Isaiah 41:10). Jesus taught that we should not be afraid. This means that we should have faith in God and trust that He will protect us and provide for us.

6. Do not be angry

“In your anger do not sin” (Ephesians 4:26). Jesus taught that we should not be angry. This means that we should not let our anger control us and lead us to do things that are wrong. Instead, we should try to stay calm and think before we act.

7. Do not be proud

“Pride goes before destruction, a haughty spirit before a fall” (Proverbs 16:18). Jesus taught that we should not be proud. This means that we should not think too highly of ourselves or think that we are better than others. Instead, we should be humble and recognize that we are all equal in God’s eyes.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information https://www.xgospel.net/harvest_form/form/?page=0&salvation=true

8. Do not be greedy

“Whoever loves money never has enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with their income” (Ecclesiastes 5:10). Jesus taught that we should not be greedy. This means that we should not be obsessed with money or material possessions. Instead, we should be content with what we have and be generous with our resources.

9. Do not be envious

“Do not envy the wicked, do not desire their company” (Proverbs 24:1). Jesus taught that we should not be envious. This means that we should not be jealous of what others have or wish that we had what they have. Instead, we should be thankful for what we have and be happy for the success of others.

10. Do not be lazy

“Lazy hands make for poverty, but diligent hands bring wealth” (Proverbs 10:4). Jesus taught that we should not be lazy. This means that we should work hard and be productive. This will help us to achieve our goals and be successful.

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.
