Jesus Proverbs on Speech

Proverbs are wise sayings that are meant to teach us how to live our lives. In the Christian faith, Jesus is the ultimate example of how to live a life of faith and love. As such, Jesus has many proverbs on speech that can help us to live our lives in a way that is pleasing to God.

The Bible is full of proverbs on speech that can help us to live our lives in a way that is pleasing to God. One of the most famous proverbs on speech is found in Matthew 12:36-37, which states, “But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.” This proverb teaches us that our words have power and that we should be careful with what we say.

Another proverb on speech is found in James 3:2-12, which states, “If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body as well. If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire! And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell.” This proverb teaches us that our words can have a great impact on our lives and the lives of those around us.

The Bible also contains proverbs on speech that can help us to live our lives in a way that is pleasing to God. One of the most famous proverbs on speech is found in Colossians 4:6, which states, “Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.” This proverb teaches us that our words should be kind and thoughtful, and that we should think before we speak.

Finally, the Bible contains proverbs on speech that can help us to live our lives in a way that is pleasing to God. One of the most famous proverbs on speech is found in Ephesians 4:29, which states, “Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear.” This proverb teaches us that our words should be used to build up and encourage those around us, rather than to tear them down.

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen. Amen
