The Fourth Great Awakening is a period of religious revival that began in the late 20th century and continues into the early 21st century. It is characterized by a renewed interest in spiritual matters and a renewed commitment to Christian values. This period of religious revival has been marked by the emergence of key figures and leaders who have helped to shape the spiritual landscape of the modern world. In this blog post, we will explore some of the key figures and leaders of the Fourth Great Awakening, as well as the biblical passages that have inspired them.

One of the most influential figures of the Fourth Great Awakening is Billy Graham. Graham was a prominent evangelist who preached the gospel of Jesus Christ to millions of people around the world. He was known for his passionate and inspiring sermons, which often drew large crowds. Graham was also a strong advocate for social justice and racial equality, and he was a vocal opponent of communism. Graham's legacy continues to this day, and his influence can be seen in the work of many modern Christian leaders.

Another key figure of the Fourth Great Awakening is Rick Warren. Warren is the founder of the Saddleback Church in California, and he is the author of the best-selling book The Purpose Driven Life. Warren's teachings focus on the importance of living a life of purpose and meaning, and he has been a strong advocate for social justice and global poverty alleviation. Warren's teachings have been widely influential, and his book has been translated into more than 50 languages.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.

The Fourth Great Awakening has also been marked by the emergence of a number of prominent female leaders. One of the most influential of these is Beth Moore, who is the founder of Living Proof Ministries. Moore is a popular Bible teacher and author, and her teachings focus on the importance of living a life of faith and obedience to God. Moore has been a strong advocate for women's rights and has been a vocal opponent of domestic violence.

Finally, the Fourth Great Awakening has been marked by the emergence of a number of prominent African-American leaders. One of the most influential of these is T.D. Jakes, who is the founder of The Potter's House in Dallas, Texas. Jakes is a popular preacher and author, and his teachings focus on the importance of living a life of faith and obedience to God. Jakes has been a strong advocate for social justice and racial equality, and he has been a vocal opponent of racism.

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen. Amen
