The East African Pentecostal Revival of the 1990s and 2000s was a powerful movement of the Holy Spirit that brought about a spiritual awakening in the region. It was marked by a renewed focus on the power of the Holy Spirit, a commitment to evangelism, and a passion for social justice. This revival was led by a number of key leaders who were instrumental in its success. In this blog post, we will explore the lives and ministries of these key leaders and how they helped to shape the East African Pentecostal Revival.

The first of these key leaders was Bishop Festo Kivengere. Bishop Kivengere was a Ugandan pastor and evangelist who was known for his passionate preaching and commitment to social justice. He was a strong advocate for the poor and oppressed, and his ministry was marked by a deep commitment to the Word of God. He was also a leader in the East African Pentecostal Revival, and his preaching and teaching helped to spread the revival throughout the region.

The second key leader was Bishop John Mulinde. Bishop Mulinde was a Ugandan pastor and evangelist who was known for his powerful preaching and commitment to social justice. He was a strong advocate for the poor and oppressed, and his ministry was marked by a deep commitment to the Word of God. He was also a leader in the East African Pentecostal Revival, and his preaching and teaching helped to spread the revival throughout the region.

The third key leader was Bishop David Kiganda. Bishop Kiganda was a Ugandan pastor and evangelist who was known for his passionate preaching and commitment to social justice. He was a strong advocate for the poor and oppressed, and his ministry was marked by a deep commitment to the Word of God. He was also a leader in the East African Pentecostal Revival, and his preaching and teaching helped to spread the revival throughout the region.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information https://www.xgospel.net/harvest\_form/form/?page=0&salvation=true
