The Indian Christian Revival of the 2000s and beyond has been a powerful movement of the Holy Spirit, bringing renewal and transformation to the Church in India. It has been marked by the emergence of key leaders who have been instrumental in leading the revival and inspiring the Church to greater heights of faith and service. In this blog post, we will take a look at some of these key leaders and their contributions to the Indian Christian Revival.

The first leader we will look at is Dr. K.P. Yohannan, the founder and president of Gospel for Asia (GFA). Dr. Yohannan has been a major force in the Indian Christian Revival, having founded GFA in 1979 with the mission of bringing the Gospel to the unreached people of Asia. He has been a tireless advocate for the cause of the poor and marginalized, and has been a major influence in the spread of the Gospel in India.

Another key leader in the Indian Christian Revival is Dr. Joseph D'Souza, the president of the All India Christian Council (AICC). Dr. D'Souza has been a major advocate for the rights of Christians in India, and has been a vocal opponent of religious persecution and discrimination. He has been a major force in the fight for religious freedom in India, and has been a major influence in the spread of the Gospel in India.

The third leader we will look at is Dr. John Dayal, the president of the All India Catholic Union (AICU). Dr. Dayal has been a major advocate for the rights of Christians in India, and has been a vocal opponent of religious persecution and discrimination. He has been a major force in the fight for religious freedom in India, and has been a major influence in the spread of the Gospel in India.

The fourth leader we will look at is Dr. Valson Thampu, the former principal of St. Stephen's College in Delhi. Dr. Thampu has been a major advocate for the rights of Christians in India, and has been a vocal opponent of religious persecution and discrimination. He has been a major force in the fight for religious freedom in India, and has been a major influence in the spread of the Gospel in India.

The fifth leader we will look at is Dr. Abraham Mathai, the former president of the All India Christian Council (AICC). Dr. Mathai has been a major advocate for the rights of Christians in India, and has been a vocal opponent of religious persecution and discrimination. He has been a major force in the fight for religious freedom in India, and has been a major influence in the spread of the Gospel in India.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
