The Nepalese Revival of the 2000s was a period of spiritual awakening and renewal in Nepal, a predominantly Hindu country. It was marked by a surge in Christian conversions, the establishment of new churches, and the growth of existing churches. This revival was led by a number of key leaders who played a crucial role in bringing about this spiritual transformation. In this blog post, we will take a look at some of these key leaders and their contributions to the Nepalese Revival.

The first key leader of the Nepalese Revival was Pastor Gopal Lama. Pastor Lama was a Nepalese Christian who had been living in India for many years. He returned to Nepal in the early 2000s and began preaching the gospel in the remote villages of the country. He was instrumental in bringing about a spiritual awakening among the people of Nepal and was responsible for the conversion of many to Christianity.

The second key leader of the Nepalese Revival was Pastor Raju Shrestha. Pastor Shrestha was a Nepalese Christian who had been living in the United States for many years. He returned to Nepal in the early 2000s and began preaching the gospel in the remote villages of the country. He was instrumental in bringing about a spiritual awakening among the people of Nepal and was responsible for the conversion of many to Christianity.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
