The Pakistani Christian Revival of the 2000s-present has been a powerful movement of faith and renewal for the Christian community in Pakistan. It has been led by a number of key leaders who have been instrumental in bringing about this revival. In this blog post, we will take a look at some of these key leaders and their contributions to the revival.

I. Bishop Samuel Azariah

Bishop Samuel Azariah is one of the most influential leaders of the Pakistani Christian Revival. He is the founder and president of the National Council of Churches in Pakistan (NCCP), which is a major ecumenical body in the country. Bishop Azariah has been a strong advocate for the rights of Christians in Pakistan and has been instrumental in bringing about positive change in the country. He has also been a strong voice for interfaith dialogue and understanding.

Bishop Azariah is a firm believer in the power of prayer and has been a major proponent of prayer meetings and gatherings. He often quotes the Bible, saying, “If two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven.” (Matthew 18:19).

II. Pastor Joseph Francis

Pastor Joseph Francis is another key leader of the Pakistani Christian Revival. He is the founder and president of the Centre for Legal Aid, Assistance and Settlement (CLAAS), which is a major Christian advocacy organization in Pakistan. Pastor Francis has been a strong advocate for the rights of Christians in Pakistan and has been instrumental in bringing about positive change in the country. He has also been a strong voice for interfaith dialogue and understanding.

Pastor Francis is a firm believer in the power of prayer and has been a major proponent of prayer meetings and gatherings. He often quotes the Bible, saying, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God." (Philippians 4:6).

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information https://www.xgospel.net/harvest_form/form/?page=0&salvation=true

III. Bishop John Joseph

Bishop John Joseph is another key leader of the Pakistani Christian Revival. He is the founder and president of the National Commission for Justice and Peace (NCJP), which is a major Christian advocacy organization in Pakistan. Bishop Joseph has been a strong advocate for the rights of Christians in Pakistan and has been instrumental in bringing about positive change in the country. He has also been a strong voice for interfaith dialogue and understanding.

Bishop Joseph is a firm believer in the power of prayer and has been a major proponent of prayer meetings and gatherings. He often quotes the Bible, saying, "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14).

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen.
