The Korean Pentecost of 1907 was a major event in the history of Christianity in Korea. It marked the beginning of a revival of the faith in the country and the emergence of key leaders who would shape the future of the church in Korea. In this blog post, we will look at some of the key leaders of the Korean Pentecost and their contributions to the growth of Christianity in Korea. We will also look at how the Korean Pentecost was a time of rededication to the faith and how it impacted the lives of many Koreans.

The Korean Pentecost was a time of spiritual renewal and revival in Korea. It was sparked by the preaching of a Korean pastor, Kim Kyo-sin, who had been sent to the United States to study theology. Upon his return to Korea, he began to preach the gospel and soon a revival broke out in the country.

One of the key leaders of the Korean Pentecost was the Reverend Sun Myung Moon. He was a young man who had been deeply moved by the preaching of Kim Kyo-sin and was determined to spread the gospel in Korea. He founded the Unification Church and began to preach the gospel to the people of Korea. He was a powerful leader and his teachings had a profound impact on the lives of many Koreans.

Another key leader of the Korean Pentecost was the Reverend David Yonggi Cho. He was a pastor who had been deeply moved by the preaching of Kim Kyo-sin and was determined to spread the gospel in Korea. He founded the Yoido Full Gospel Church and began to preach the gospel to the people of Korea. He was a powerful leader and his teachings had a profound impact on the lives of many Koreans.

The Korean Pentecost was also a time of rededication to the faith. Many Koreans who had been living in spiritual darkness were moved by the preaching of Kim Kyo-sin and the other key leaders of the Korean Pentecost and rededicated their lives to the Lord. As the Bible says, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
