The Sri Lankan Revival of the 2000s-present has been a powerful movement of the Holy Spirit that has impacted the nation and the world. It has been a time of spiritual renewal and awakening, with many people coming to faith in Jesus Christ and being transformed by the power of the gospel. The revival has had a lasting legacy and influence, and it is important to understand its significance and impact.

The Sri Lankan Revival began in the early 2000s, when a group of Christian leaders and pastors began to pray for a spiritual awakening in the nation. They prayed for a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and for the gospel to be proclaimed with power and authority. As they prayed, God began to move in a powerful way, and the revival began to spread throughout the nation.

The revival was marked by a deep sense of the presence of God, with many people experiencing the power of the Holy Spirit in a tangible way. There were signs and wonders, healings, and deliverances, as well as a deep conviction of sin and a hunger for the Word of God. People were drawn to the gospel, and many came to faith in Jesus Christ.

The revival had a profound impact on the nation, with churches being planted and transformed, and many people coming to faith in Jesus Christ. It also had a global impact, with many people from other nations coming to Sri Lanka to experience the revival and to be a part of the movement.

The legacy and influence of the Sri Lankan Revival has been far-reaching. It has been a time of spiritual renewal and awakening, with many people coming to faith in Jesus Christ and being transformed by the power of the gospel. It has also been a time of unity and reconciliation, with many churches coming together to proclaim the gospel and to work together for the kingdom of God.

The Bible says in Acts 2:17, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, that I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your young men shall see visions, your old men shall dream dreams." This verse speaks of the power of the Holy Spirit to bring about spiritual renewal and awakening, and this is what we have seen in the Sri Lankan Revival.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
