As Christians, we are called to live lives that are pleasing to God, especially as we anticipate the Second Coming of Christ. The Bible exhorts us to be holy and righteous, preparing ourselves for the glorious return of our Savior.

The Importance of Holiness and Righteousness

Living a holy and righteous life is not merely about following a set of rules, but it is a reflection of our relationship with God. In 1 Thessalonians 4:7, Paul reminds us, “For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness.” Our lives should reflect the purity and righteousness of Christ, as we await His return.

Staying Vigilant and Watchful

Jesus himself emphasized the importance of being vigilant and watchful for His return. In Matthew 24:42, He says, “Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming.” We must be diligent in our faith, constantly seeking to grow closer to God and live according to His will.

Walking in Love and Forgiveness

Central to living a holy and righteous life is the practice of love and forgiveness. In Colossians 3:12-14, Paul urges believers to “put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.” By embodying these virtues, we reflect the character of Christ to the world.

Conclusion

As we eagerly anticipate the Second Coming of Christ, let us strive to live holy and righteous lives, guided by the teachings of Scripture. May we remain vigilant, walking in love and forgiveness, as we await the glorious return of our Savior.
