Believers are called to live a life of faith and obedience in anticipation of Christ's return. The Bible encourages us to "walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God" (Colossians 1:10). As we live in anticipation of Christ's return, we must strive to live a life of faith and obedience that is pleasing to God.

Living a Life of Faith

Living a life of faith means trusting in God and His promises. We must have faith that God will fulfill His promises and that He will be faithful to us. We must also have faith that God will provide for our needs and that He will protect us from harm. We must have faith that God will lead us in the right direction and that He will give us the strength and courage to follow Him.

Living a Life of Obedience

Living a life of obedience means following God's commands and living according to His will. We must strive to obey God's commands and to live in a way that is pleasing to Him. We must also strive to be obedient to our leaders and to those in authority over us. We must be willing to submit to God's will and to follow His commands.

Staying Vigilant

In Matthew 24:42, Jesus exhorts us to "stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming." Living in anticipation of Christ's return requires vigilance and readiness, keeping our hearts and minds focused on Him at all times.

Living in Anticipation of Christ's Return

Living in anticipation of Christ's return means living in a way that is pleasing to God and that is in line with His will. We must strive to live a life of faith and obedience that is pleasing to God and that is in line with His commands. We must also strive to be ready for Christ's return and to be prepared to meet Him when He comes.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
