Maundy Thursday is the Thursday before Easter Sunday and is the day that Jesus celebrated the Last Supper with his disciples. It is also known as Holy Thursday, Covenant Thursday, Great and Holy Thursday, Sheer Thursday, and Thursday of Mysteries. The word “Maundy” comes from the Latin word “mandatum”, which means “commandment”. This is in reference to the commandment that Jesus gave to his disciples at the Last Supper: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another” (John 13:34).

II. The Last Supper

The Last Supper was the last meal that Jesus shared with his disciples before his death. It is recorded in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. During the meal,

Jesus gave his disciples a new commandment to love one another, and he also instituted the Eucharist, or Communion. He also predicted his betrayal by Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples. After the meal, Jesus and his disciples went to the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus was arrested.
