El Elyon is a Hebrew name that is found in the Bible and is used to refer to God. The name El Elyon is translated as "God Most High" and is used to refer to the one true God who is above all other gods. In the Bible, El Elyon is used to refer to the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and is often used in conjunction with other names for God such as El Shaddai and Elohim.

In Christianity, El Elyon is seen as a name that speaks to the power and majesty of God. It is a reminder that God is above all other gods and is the one true God who is worthy of all praise and worship. The name El Elyon is often used in worship and prayer as a way to remind believers of the power and sovereignty of God.

The Bible speaks of El Elyon in several places, including in the book of Genesis. In Genesis 14:18-20, it says, "And Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; now he was a priest of God Most High. He blessed him and said, 'Blessed be Abram of God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth; And blessed be God Most High, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand.'" This passage speaks of the power of El Elyon and how He is the one who is in control of all things.

In Psalm 47:2, it says, "For the Lord Most High is awesome, the great King over all the earth." This passage speaks of the power and majesty of El Elyon and how He is the one who is in control of all things.

In Isaiah 14:14, it says, "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High." This passage speaks of the pride of the enemy and how he wanted to be like El Elyon, but was not able to do so.

In Luke 1:32-33, it says, "He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most
