What is Mormonism?

Mormonism is a religion based on the teachings of Jesus Christ and the Bible. It is a restoration of the original Christian church that was established by Jesus Christ. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS) is the official name of the Mormon Church. The Church is led by a prophet who receives revelation from God.

Beliefs

Mormons believe in the Bible and the Book of Mormon. They believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and the Savior of the world. They also believe in the doctrine of salvation through faith, repentance, baptism, and enduring to the end. Mormons believe that families can be together forever and that the family is the most important unit in society.

Practices

Mormons practice a variety of religious activities. They attend weekly worship services, participate in temple ceremonies, and serve in the Church. They also practice tithing, which is the giving of 10% of their income to the Church. Mormons also practice missionary work, which is the sharing of the gospel with others.

History

The Mormon Church was founded in 1830 by Joseph Smith. Smith claimed to have received a revelation from God that led him to restore the original Christian church. The Church grew rapidly and soon spread throughout the United States and beyond. Today, the Church has over 16 million members worldwide.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
