The Bible and Resilience

The Bible speaks to the importance of resilience in our lives. In the book of James, we are told to "count it all joy when you fall into various trials" (James 1:2). In the book of Romans, we are told to "not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind" (Romans 12:2). These passages emphasize the importance of resilience in our lives and the need to be able to adapt to changing circumstances.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
