Praying for those affected by corruption is an important part of our Christian faith. We are called to pray for those who are suffering and to stand up for justice. The Bible tells us in Proverbs 21:15, “When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous but terror to evildoers.” We must pray for those who are suffering from the effects of corruption and for those who are perpetuating it.

Corruption is a global problem that affects all of us. It is a form of injustice that can lead to poverty, inequality, and suffering. It can also lead to the breakdown of trust in government and institutions. Corruption can take many forms, from bribery and embezzlement to nepotism and cronyism. It can also take the form of political and economic manipulation.

No matter what form it takes, corruption is a serious problem that needs to be addressed. We must pray for those who are affected by it and for those who are perpetuating it. We must pray for justice to be done and for those in power to be held accountable. We must also pray for those who are suffering from the effects of corruption, that they may find comfort and hope in God.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
