As Christians, we believe in the imminent return of Jesus Christ, an event often referred to as the Second Coming. This belief is rooted in biblical prophecy, including Jesus' own words in Matthew 24:44, where he says, "Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

1 Thessalonians 5:2 also reminds us, "For you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night." In light of these teachings, it becomes imperative for us to prepare ourselves and others for this glorious event.

Why Share the Gospel?

Sharing the gospel is not merely an obligation but a privilege and a commandment for believers. In Mark 16:15, Jesus instructs his disciples, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation." This commission extends to all Christians, urging us to spread the good news of salvation to every corner of the earth.

Moreover, in Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus commands his followers to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything he has commanded. This underscores the importance of not only sharing the gospel but also nurturing new believers in their

The Urgency of the Harvest

The Bible uses the metaphor of a harvest to describe the gathering of souls into the kingdom of God. In John 4:35, Jesus tells his disciples, “Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months, then comes the harvest’? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest.”

This imagery emphasizes the urgency of the task before us. Just as farmers diligently work to gather crops before they spoil, so too must we be diligent in sharing the gospel before it is too late.

Conclusion

As we eagerly anticipate the Second Coming of Christ, let us heed his call to share the gospel with boldness and compassion. Let us be mindful of the urgency of the harvest, knowing that each soul won for the kingdom is a precious treasure in the sight of God. May we be faithful stewards of the gospel, eagerly laboring in the fields until the day of Christ’s glorious return.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
