Refutation of Objections of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Introduction

The gifts of the Holy Spirit are a source of great blessing and power for the Christian. However, there are some who object to the idea of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, claiming that they are not biblical or that they are not necessary for the Christian life. In this article, we will look at some of the objections to the gifts of the Holy Spirit and refute them using biblical and theological arguments.

Objection 1: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are Not Biblical

This objection is based on the idea that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are not mentioned in the Bible. However, this is not true. The Bible does mention the gifts of the Holy Spirit in several places. For example, in 1 Corinthians 12:4-11, Paul speaks of the gifts of the Spirit, including the gift of prophecy, the gift of healing, the gift of tongues, and the gift of knowledge. In Romans 12:6-8, Paul speaks of the gifts of the Spirit, including the gift of prophecy, the gift of service, the gift of teaching, and the gift of exhortation.

Objection 2: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are Not Necessary

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. This objection is based on the idea that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are not necessary for the Christian life. However, this is not true. The Bible teaches that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are essential for the Christian life. In 1 Corinthians 12:7, Paul says, "Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good." This verse teaches that the gifts of the Spirit are given to each Christian for the common good. In Ephesians 4:11-12, Paul says, "It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up." This verse teaches that the gifts of the Spirit are given to equip God's people for works of service.

Objection 3: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are Not for Today

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen. This objection is based on the idea that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are not for today. However, this is not true. The Bible teaches that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are for today. In 1 Corinthians 12:7-11, Paul says, “Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. To one there is given through the Spirit a message of wisdom, to another a message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues.” This verse teaches that the gifts of the Spirit are given to each Christian for the common good.

Conclusion

The gifts of the Holy Spirit are a source of great blessing and power for the Christian.
