Revelation Knowledge Increases Understanding

Revelation knowledge is a type of knowledge that comes from God. It is a special type of knowledge that is not available to everyone. It is a knowledge that is revealed to those who seek it. It is a knowledge that is not easily understood by the natural mind. It is a knowledge that is only revealed to those who are willing to open their hearts and minds to receive it.

The Bible speaks of revelation knowledge in many places. In the book of Proverbs, it says, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction” (Proverbs 1:7). This verse speaks of the importance of having a reverential fear of God in order to gain knowledge. It also speaks of the foolishness of those who reject wisdom and instruction.

In the book of Ephesians, it says, “For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God” (Ephesians 3:14-19). This passage speaks of the power of the Holy Spirit to give us strength to understand the breadth, length, height, and depth of God’s love. It also speaks of the importance of being rooted and grounded in love in order to comprehend the love of Christ.

In the book of Isaiah, it says, “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts” (Isaiah 55:8-9). This passage speaks of the difference between God’s thoughts and our own. It speaks of the importance of understanding that God’s ways are higher than our own.

Revelation knowledge increases understanding. It helps us to understand the things of God that are beyond our natural understanding. It helps us to comprehend the love of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit. It helps us to understand the difference between God’s thoughts and our own. Revelation knowledge is a powerful tool that can help us to grow in our faith and understanding of God.

Revelation knowledge is not something that can be gained through study or research. It is something that must be sought after and asked for. It is something that must be opened up to in order for it to be received. It is something that must be sought after with a humble and reverential heart.

In the book of James, it says, “If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him” (James 1:5). This verse speaks of the importance of asking God for wisdom. It speaks of the fact that God will give generously to those who ask.
