Revelation knowledge is not a substitute for the Bible in Christianity.

Introduction

Revelation knowledge is a term used to describe knowledge that is revealed to a person by God. It is often seen as a form of divine guidance or insight that is not available through traditional means. In Christianity, however, revelation knowledge is not a substitute for the Bible. The Bible is the ultimate source of truth and guidance for Christians, and revelation knowledge should be seen as a supplement to the Bible, not a replacement.

The Bible and Revelation Knowledge

The Bible is the ultimate source of truth and guidance for Christians. It is the inspired Word of God, and it is the only source of absolute truth. Revelation knowledge should be seen as a supplement to the Bible, not a replacement. Revelation knowledge can provide insight and guidance, but it should never be

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information https://www.xgospel.net/harvest\_form/form/?page=0&salvation=true

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen.
