Revelation Knowledge is not for select few individuals

Revelation knowledge is a term used to describe the knowledge that comes from God. It is a type of knowledge that is not available to everyone, but is available to those who seek it. In Christianity, revelation knowledge is seen as a gift from God, and it is believed that it can be used to help people understand the will of God and to live a life that is pleasing to Him.

The Bible is full of examples of revelation knowledge being given to individuals. In the Old Testament, God spoke to Moses and gave him the Ten Commandments. In the New Testament, Jesus revealed himself to the disciples and gave them the Great Commission. In both cases, the knowledge was given to individuals who were chosen by God to receive it.
