The Bible is full of examples of strategic planning. From the time of Abraham to the time of Jesus, God has been guiding His people to plan for the future. In the New Testament, Jesus taught His disciples to be wise and plan for the future. He said, “Therefore, be wise as serpents and harmless as doves” (Matthew 10:16). Strategic planning is an important part of Christian life and ministry.

What is Strategic Planning?

Strategic planning is the process of setting goals and objectives, and then developing a plan to achieve them. It involves analyzing the current situation, identifying opportunities and threats, and then developing a plan to take advantage of the opportunities and mitigate the threats. Strategic planning is an important part of any organization, including churches and other Christian ministries.

Why is Strategic Planning Important?

Strategic planning is important because it helps organizations to focus their resources and efforts on the most important goals. It also helps to ensure that resources are used efficiently and effectively. Strategic planning helps organizations to stay on track and to make sure that they are working towards their goals.

How Can Churches and Other Christian Ministries Use Strategic Planning?

Churches and other Christian ministries can use strategic planning to set goals and objectives, and then develop a plan to achieve them. This can include setting short-term and long-term goals, developing a budget, and creating a timeline for achieving the goals. Strategic planning can also help churches and other Christian ministries to identify opportunities and threats, and then develop strategies to take advantage of the opportunities and mitigate the threats.

What Does the Bible Say About Strategic Planning?

The Bible is full of examples of strategic planning. In the Old Testament, God instructed Abraham to plan for the future. He said, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you” (Genesis 12:1). In the New Testament, Jesus taught His disciples to be wise and plan for the future. He said, “Therefore, be wise as serpents and harmless as doves” (Matthew 10:16).

How Can Churches and Other Christian Ministries Implement Strategic Planning?

Churches and other Christian ministries can implement strategic planning by setting goals and objectives, and then developing a plan to achieve them.
