Apostles are a special group of people in Christianity who are chosen by God to spread the gospel and lead the church. They are the foundation of the church and are responsible for teaching and guiding the church in the ways of God. The Bible speaks of the importance of apostles and their role in the church. In Ephesians 2:20, it says, “And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone.”

Apostles are blessed with many gifts and abilities from God. They are given the power to heal the sick, cast out demons, and perform miracles. They are also given the authority to preach the gospel and lead the church. In Acts 2:43, it says, “And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.”

Apostles are also blessed with the gift of discernment. They are able to recognize false teachings and false prophets. They are able to discern the truth from lies and can help the church stay on the right path. In 1 Corinthians 12:10, it says, “To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues.”

Apostles are also blessed with the gift of wisdom. They are able to understand the scriptures and interpret them in a way that is beneficial to the church. They are able to provide guidance and direction to the church and help them make wise decisions. In James 1:5, it says, “If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.”

Apostles are also blessed with the gift of faith. They are able to trust in God and have faith that He will provide for them and the church. In Hebrews 11:1, it says, “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”

Apostles are also blessed with the gift of love. They are able to love others unconditionally and show compassion and mercy to those in need. In 1 Corinthians 13:13, it says, "And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."
