Proverbs 15:1 says, "A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger." This verse speaks to the importance of communication in marriage, and how a gentle answer can help to avoid conflict. Ephesians 4:29 says, "Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear." This verse speaks to the importance of speaking kindly and respectfully to each other in marriage. Colossians 4:6 says, "Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person." This verse speaks to the importance of being mindful of how we communicate with each other in marriage. Finally, James 1:19 says, "Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger." This verse speaks to the importance of listening to each other in marriage.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. Amen If you prayed the above prayers kindly click here to get more information
