The cost of discipleship in Christianity is a concept that has been discussed for centuries. It is a concept that is rooted in the teachings of Jesus Christ and is a fundamental part of the Christian faith. The cost of discipleship is the idea that in order to be a true follower of Jesus, one must be willing to give up everything in order to follow Him. This includes material possessions, relationships, and even one's own life. As Jesus said in Luke 14:26, "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple."

Cost of Discipleship

The cost of discipleship is the idea that in order to be a true follower of Jesus, one must be willing to give up everything in order to follow Him. This includes material possessions, relationships, and even one's own life. Jesus said in Luke 14:33, "Any of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be my disciple." This is a difficult concept to accept, but it is an essential part of the Christian faith.

The Benefits of Discipleship

The cost of discipleship may seem daunting, but it is important to remember that there are also many benefits to being a disciple of Jesus. Discipleship brings with it a sense of purpose and direction in life. It also brings a sense of community and belonging as one is part of a larger group of believers. Finally, it brings a sense of peace and joy as one follows the teachings of Jesus and lives a life of obedience to God.

Harvesting the Fruit of Discipleship

The fruit of discipleship is the result of living a life of obedience to God and following the teachings of Jesus. This fruit includes a deeper understanding of God's love, a closer relationship with Him, and a greater sense of purpose and direction in life. It also includes a greater sense of community and belonging as one is part of a larger group of believers.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
