The Bible tells us that Jesus died on the cross for our sins, and that through His death, we can have peace with God. Romans 5:1 says, “Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” This verse reminds us that through faith in Jesus, we can have peace with God.

The cross also provides peace with others. Jesus said in Matthew 5:9, “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.” This verse reminds us that we can be peacemakers in our relationships with others. We can show love and grace to those around us, and we can be a source of peace and hope in our relationships.

The cross also reminds us of the hope and joy that comes from a relationship with Jesus. Jesus said in John 14:27, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." This verse reminds us that Jesus gives us a peace that the world cannot give. We can have hope and joy in our lives because of our relationship with Jesus.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
