The Dignity and Worth of Every Person in Pastoral Care and Counseling

The Bible is clear that every person is created in the image of God and is of great value and worth. As Christians, we are called to recognize and honor the dignity and worth of every person in pastoral care and counseling.

What Does the Bible Say About the Dignity and Worth of Every Person?

The Bible is full of passages that emphasize the dignity and worth of every person. In Genesis 1:27, we read, “So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.” This passage emphasizes the fact that every person is created in the image of God and is of great value and worth.

In Psalm 139:13-14, we read, “For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.” This passage emphasizes the fact that every person is fearfully and wonderfully made by God and is of great value and worth.

In Matthew 5:44-45, we read, “But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.” This passage emphasizes the fact that God loves all people and that every person is of great value and worth.
