The history of Israel before the Babylonian exile is an important part of the Christian faith. It is a story of God's faithfulness to His people, and of His promises to them. In the Bible, we read of the Israelites' journey from slavery in Egypt to the Promised Land of Canaan, and of their struggles to remain faithful to God in the face of adversity. We also read of the Babylonian exile, when the Israelites were taken captive by the Babylonians and forced to live in exile in Babylon.

The story of Israel before the Babylonian exile begins with the call of Abraham. God promised Abraham that he would be the father of a great nation, and that through his descendants all the nations of the earth would be blessed. Abraham and his wife Sarah had a son, Isaac, and Isaac had two sons, Jacob and Esau. Jacob was later renamed Israel, and his descendants became known as the Israelites.

The Israelites were enslaved in Egypt for many years, but God sent Moses to lead them out of slavery and into the Promised Land of Canaan. The Israelites were led by Joshua, and they conquered the land of Canaan and settled there. The Israelites were ruled by judges and then by kings, and they were divided into two kingdoms, the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen. The northern kingdom of Israel was conquered by the Assyrians in 722 BC, and the people were taken into exile. The southern kingdom of Judah was conquered by the Babylonians in 586 BC, and the people were taken into exile in Babylon. This exile lasted for 70 years, and during this time the Israelites were allowed to practice their religion and to keep their culture alive.

At the end of the exile, the Israelites were allowed to return to their homeland. This event is known as the Return from Exile, and it is celebrated in the Bible as a time of joy and redemption. The prophet Ezra led the people in a ceremony of rededication to God, and the people renewed their covenant with God.

Rededication Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today with a heart of repentance. I confess that I have strayed from your path and have not been living according to your will. But I am here to rededicate myself to you and to make a commitment to follow you with all my heart. I ask for your forgiveness and for the strength and guidance to walk in your ways. I thank you for your love, grace, and mercy. I give you my all, my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength, I trust in you and I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen.
