At the Second Coming of Christ, the judgment of the wicked will be swift and sure. The Bible speaks of this judgment in many places, including Matthew 25:31-46, where Jesus says, “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.’”

At the Second Coming of Christ, the judgment of the wicked will be swift and sure. The Bible speaks of this judgment in many places, including Matthew 25:31-46, where Jesus says, “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.’”

The Bible also speaks of the judgment of the wicked in other passages, such as Revelation 20:11-15, which says, “Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. From his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to what they had done. And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done.”

The judgment of the wicked will be based on their deeds and their actions in life. Those who have done good will be rewarded with eternal life in the kingdom of God, while those who have done evil will be condemned to eternal punishment. The Bible also speaks of the judgment of the wicked in other passages, such as Isaiah 66:24, which says, “And they shall go out and look on the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against me. For their worm shall not die, their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.”
