The Korean Pentecost of 1907 is a significant event in the history of Christianity in Korea. It is a remarkable example of the power of the Holy Spirit to bring about revival and renewal in a nation. The Korean Pentecost was a period of intense spiritual awakening that began in the spring of 1907 and lasted for several months. During this time, thousands of Koreans experienced a powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit, resulting in a dramatic increase in conversions to Christianity.

The Korean Pentecost began with a series of revival meetings held in Pyongyang, the capital of Korea. The meetings were led by a Korean pastor, Kim Kyo-sin, and attended by thousands of people. During the meetings, Kim preached the gospel of Jesus Christ and encouraged the people to repent of their sins and turn to God. As the meetings continued, the power of the Holy Spirit began to be felt in the crowd. People began to weep and pray, and many experienced a deep sense of conviction and repentance.

The revival spread quickly throughout the country, and soon there were reports of similar meetings taking place in other cities and towns. People from all walks of life were coming to faith in Jesus Christ, and the number of converts was growing rapidly. The revival was so powerful that it was even reported in the newspapers of the time.

The Korean Pentecost was a remarkable example of the power of the Holy Spirit to bring about revival and renewal. It was a time of great joy and celebration for the Korean church, and it is remembered to this day as a time of spiritual awakening and renewal. As the Apostle Peter said in Acts 2:17, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.”

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
