The concept of discipleship is a central theme in Christianity. It is a call to follow Jesus and to live a life of obedience to God's will. Discipleship is a lifelong journey of learning and growth, and it requires a commitment to living a life of faith and service.

What Does the Bible Say About Discipleship?

The Bible is full of passages that speak to the importance of discipleship. In Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus says, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." This passage emphasizes the importance of teaching others about the gospel and living a life of obedience to God's commands.

In Luke 9:23, Jesus says, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." This passage emphasizes the importance of self-denial and sacrifice in the life of a disciple.

In John 15:16, Jesus says, "You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.” This passage emphasizes the importance of bearing fruit in the life of a disciple.

The Responsibilities of Discipleship

Discipleship involves a number of responsibilities. These include:

1. Learning and Growing in Faith

As a disciple of Jesus, it is important to continually learn and grow in faith. This involves studying the Bible, praying, and spending time in fellowship with other believers.

2. Obeying God’s Commands

As a disciple of Jesus, it is important to obey God’s commands. This involves living a life of holiness and righteousness, and following the teachings of Jesus.

3. Sharing the Gospel

As a disciple of Jesus, it is important to share the gospel with others. This involves being a witness for Christ and proclaiming the good news of salvation.

4. Serving Others

As a disciple of Jesus, it is important to serve others. This involves using one’s gifts and talents to help those in need and to build up the body of Christ.

5. Living a Life of Sacrifice

As a disciple of Jesus, it is important to live a life of sacrifice. This involves denying oneself and taking up one’s cross daily, and following Jesus no matter the cost.

Conclusion

The responsibilities of discipleship are many, but they are all rooted in the call to follow Jesus and to live a life of obedience to God's will. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to learn and grow in faith, obey God's commands, share the gospel, serve others, and live a life of sacrifice.

Salvation Prayers : Dear Lord Jesus, I come to you today acknowledging my need for salvation. I confess that I have sinned and fallen short of your glory. But I believe that you died for my sins and rose again. I ask that you come into my heart and be my Lord. I commit to following you and living for you every day. Thank you for your love and for the gift of eternal life. In your name I pray, Amen.
