Compromise is an important part of Christian negotiation. It is a way of finding a middle ground between two parties, and it is a way of showing respect for the other person's point of view. Compromise is a way of showing love and understanding, and it is a way of finding a solution that is acceptable to both parties.

The Bible speaks of compromise in many places. In Matthew 5:25, Jesus says, "Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison." This verse speaks of the importance of compromise in resolving disputes. In Proverbs 17:14, it says, "Starting a quarrel is like opening a floodgate, so drop the matter before a dispute breaks out." This verse speaks of the importance of compromise in avoiding conflict.
