Revelation knowledge is a type of knowledge that is revealed to us by God. It is a type of knowledge that is not accessible through our own understanding or through the teachings of man. It is a type of knowledge that is only revealed to us through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The role of fellowship in receiving revelation knowledge is an important one. Fellowship with other believers allows us to open our hearts and minds to the power of the Holy Spirit. It allows us to be open to the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit. Fellowship also allows us to be open to the revelation knowledge that God has for us.

Ephesians 3:17-19 says, "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God."

Through fellowship, we can open our hearts and minds to the power of the Holy Spirit and to the revelation knowledge that God has for us. We can be filled with the knowledge of God's love and be rooted and grounded in it. We can be filled with the fullness of God and be able to comprehend the breadth, length, depth, and height of His love.

Fellowship also allows us to be open to the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit. Through fellowship, we can be open to the leading of the Holy Spirit and be willing to follow His guidance. We can be open to the revelation knowledge that God has for us and be willing to accept it.

John 14:26 says, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."

Through fellowship, we can be open to the teaching of the Holy Spirit and be willing to accept the revelation knowledge that He has for us. We can be open to the leading of the Holy Spirit and be willing to follow His guidance.
