Evangelism is an integral part of Christianity, as it is through evangelism that the gospel is spread and people are brought to faith in Christ. There are many different ways to evangelize, but it is important to be sure that the message being shared is in line with the teachings of the Bible. In this article, we will look at what to say during evangelism, while quoting Bible verses and providing discussion questions and FAQs to help you better understand the message of evangelism.

The Bible and Evangelism

When it comes to evangelism, the Bible is our ultimate source of guidance and truth. There are numerous passages in the Bible that speak to the need to share the gospel and the importance of evangelism in the life of a believer.

In Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus instructs us to “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” This passage emphasizes the importance of sharing the gospel with others, as it is through evangelism that the gospel is spread and people are brought to faith in Christ.

In addition to this, there are numerous other passages in the Bible that provide guidance for evangelism. For example, Romans 10:14-15 states, "How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent?" This passage emphasizes the importance of preaching and sharing the gospel with others in order to bring them to faith in Christ.

This will help people to better understand the message of the gospel and will make it easier for them to accept it.

The fourth question to consider is, "What are the benefits of accepting the gospel?" The benefits of accepting the gospel are numerous and include forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life, and the assurance of God's love and protection.

The fifth and final question to consider is, "What do I need to do to share the gospel?" In order to share the gospel, it is important to be sure that you are
